

DAWN WILSON, missing since December 2008*

written by Jeff Wilson

You left us in a rush of heart in days of last December.

Gone down the road with fears abode lost love you can't remember.

We sit and talk and dream and walk, share words on where you'd go.

We're left behind with tortured minds and thoughts that ebb and flow.

Are you sitting under tussocks of a lonely river plain?

Or gone to other cities where your life may bud again?

We live in hope some gentle hand will guide you to home's door.

You body, soul and broken heart with love we will restore".

Dawn was later found deceased in May 2009.
