Distinguishing features: Margaret has a tattoo of a bluebird on her left hip. Has a gold filling on the front of her right front tooth.

Circumstances:

Margaret Anne Bernie was last seen at her Mount Gambier home on Monday morning, 25 January 1988. Her family became seriously concerned for her safety and welfare when she was not seen again and no contact was made by her.

Margaret was later reported missing by her sister to the Mount Gambier Police. Margaret has not been seen since. In July and December 1989 there was a possible sighting of Margaret by friends in Adelaide.

Despite extensive enquiries Margaret was not located and her disappearance remains a mystery.

After all this time there is still no paper trail to provide police with any clues as to her whereabouts and no contact has been made with her family or friends.

Grave concerns are held for Margaret's safety and welfare.
