Circumstances:

William Francis Steffen, also known by Bill or Billy, was born in 1952 and living in Adelaide when he was discharged from an Adelaide Hospital on 4 June 1985. William is believed to have travelled to Tasmania shortly after his release from hospital.

On 13 June 1985 he telephoned his mother in Queensland informing her that he was in Tasmania, however, was sounding dazed and confused at the time. Enquiries reveal that he was last sighted attending a medical appointment in Elizabeth Street, North Hobart, Tasmania on 17 June 1985. It was thought he may have returned to Queensland, where his family were living, however, enquiries to date have been unable to confirm this and there has been no sign of William since this time.
